

Holger Göbel

Commercial Director

As DMAN's commercial director, Holger Göbel is responsible for the academy's financial accounting, internal cost accounting and controlling.

Competencies

Commercial management, finance and accounting, including balancing, financial management, controlling, corporate planning and reporting.

Professional Background

Many years of experience as a manager in the commercial and administrative areas of company management: financial and accounting / controlling / business administration, personnel and training management, individual and collective labour law, insurance and contract management, international experience in the UK.

Holger Göbel studied business administration, with a focus on European finance and accounting at the University of Bremen, and business law for the corporate practice at the TEchnical University of Kaiserslautern. He holds the following academic degrees: Master of Business Administration (FH) and BA (Hons), Business Lawyer, Master in Commercial Law LL.M. (Com.)

Languages

German, English.